PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN, ROYAL-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

Vol. XIX.]

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 5, 1818.

[No. 5349.]

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union; the danger of indulging too much in party feelings; the necessity of supporting public credit at home;—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations; of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments;—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at Yorktown, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a proper character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 30.

Exchange & Broker's Office, Georgetown, District of Columbia.
ROMULUS RIGGS.

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-street, Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Bank at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittance to the large commercial and Atlantic towns,—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeiters on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber about the 4th of August, Negro Woman LOUIZA—she is 25 years old, about 5 feet five inches high, and stout; has some of her front teeth out, and is apt to laugh when spoken to; she has a sister Marinda and a mother living in Georgetown, one above Semmes's tavern, and the other on Herring Hill, where she has been harbored for two weeks, and left there to come home, but has not done so.—I expect she can be found in Georgetown or Alexandria, where she has many acquaintances. I will give the above reward if brought home, or lodged in jail so that I get her again.

ACADEMY.

THE Subscriber most respectfully informs the inhabitants of Alexandria, that he will open an English, Mercantile, and Mathematical Academy at Mr. Ruid's, Prince-street, a few doors west of the Farmers' Bank, where youth shall be instructed with care and expedition in the following sciences, in order to qualify them for the different departments in trade and business, viz. In the Mercantile, Naval, and Military line—Reading; writing; arithmetic; English-grammar; book-keeping; geometry, both plane and solid; mensuration of surfaces and solids; trigonometry, both plane and spherical; surveying; gauging; navigation; dialing; use of the globes, maps, and geography; algebra; conic-sections; mechanics; gunnery; fortification; fluxions; astronomy; &c. &c.

Applications to be made to Mr. Gay Atkinson, Mr. Wm. Dunlap, or at the academy, where the terms will be made known. The Academy will open on the 17th inst.
JAS. CADEN.

Prof. Math. & Nat. Philosophy.
*Arithmetic in so compendious a manner, (by lecture) that one figure does the office of ten in the common way; and of course, in one tenth the time the student can acquire a regular knowledge of this excellent art.

*Book-keeping (by single and double entry) in all its varieties, with general lectures on Domestic, Factorage, and Company Accounts; Accounts of Exchange; Negotiation of bills; covering of cargoes, &c. with calculations, shewing at one view the state of the trader, merchant, factor, and grocer's affairs. These being more closely connected with business than any of the above, occasioned the subscriber to point them out to the public. He also invites the learned to visit the academy at their convenience, and judge for themselves. On the first of October he will open an Evening School, for the accommodation of those whose employments prevent from attending during the day.

Baltimore Hospital.

THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New York and Philadelphia, to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Directors of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which two visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchell, the Stewart and clean manner in which the neat and uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappi, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made" but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen: Doctors Colin Mackenzie, Attending James Smyth, Physicians.
Dr. Horatio Gates Jackson, Attending Surg.
Doctors George Brown
John Coulter
Solomon Campbell White
John Cronwell
Peter Chetard
Ashton Alexander
John Owen
William Donaldson

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a season put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents: HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMER CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their age, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum; one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For farther information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

From the New-York Columbian.
THE SAILOR'S SONG AT SEA.
On Ocean's smooth, untroubled breast,
The gentle breeze of evening blew;
The recent storm was hushed to rest—
The freighted bark in silence flew.
The helmsman watch'd the moon's pale light Where hovering on the mirror deep,
The sea-bird in the arms of night Was lowly rock'd to tranquil sleep.

With sparkling eyes he watched the sail, Wide curving to the kissing wind—Then whistled to the passing gale—Then sang to Mary, far behind.
His artless notes of love arose, Address'd to her, so sweet, so fair; Then sinking to a tender close—Conclud'd and melted with the air.

"Thou seaman's friend, full mantled Moon!
How cloudless is thy way; Rejoice, while in thy prime, for soon Those splendors shall decay.
Soon but a crescent faint appears:
"It marks thy boundless reign!" Then, brightening with a shower of tears, "Sinks in the western main."

"Ye stars! of small, yet brilliant ray—Retiring from the beams Of yonder Moon; unseen by day,
"Ye live, to cheer our dreams!
And oft along the silent skies,
"When march of storms is o'er,
"Ye dance, and sparkling, close your eyes
"To open them no more."

"Like that brief Moon, is life's gay hour
"Abridg'd of half its bliss;
"And like those stars, a full blown flow'r,
"To shine no more in this;
"Man for another world departs—
"Of like the shooting star,
"He leaves a train behind, which starts
"Pale memory from afar!"

"Alas! below, aside, around,
"Joy's rose-tree blossoms wide,
"Yet still, the Thorn of care is found "Engraved in its side!
"But why indulge this mournful strain?
"Home shall again be mine!
"Then welcome Pleasure—farewell Pain—
"Then Mary, love is thine!"

AGRICULTURAL.
We had the pleasure to notice in the last vol. of the Register, page 329, some little patches of very superior wheat and rye then growing on the farm of E. S. Thomas, Esq. of Baltimore county. We have just received the following particulars of the product of those patches—which we consider very interesting to our agriculturalists.

The wheat was raised from a small quantity which grew last year in European Turkey—the quantity sown was rather less than a pint; time of sowing March 25, in 8 drills of 110 feet each, and one foot apart; it was reaped on the 16th of July, and threshed the 18th inst.—the produce forty-two for one. This wheat weighs 62 lbs. per bushel, and is of a very bright yellow color—the straw, head and beard, when fully ripe, had a bright purple tinge. Two of its grains are about as large and heavy as three grains of good wheat of the common kind. The crop was put in and secured in the space of 113 days.

The rye sown was a part of the product of 4 grains originally received from a place near the head of the Mediterranean sea. The quantity sown was two pecks; time of sowing March 25, broad cast on about nine square perches of ground, which was too rich, for the weeds were higher than the rye when it was reaped on the 17th of July—it was threshed on the 22d inst. and produced twenty-seven for one. The grain is of a very bright yellow, and twice the size of the common rye—and weighs 60 lbs. per bushel. The putting in and securing the crop occupied 114 days. This rye does not grow higher than the common kind on good land.

We learn that Mr. Thomas intends carefully to husband the products of his wheat and rye, for the next year's sowing; after which, hoping to have a sufficiency to ensure an extension of the quantity for seed, he will freely dispose of it to his friends and neighbors, who will be invited to come and get it of him.

A POLITICAL ORATOR.

An orator, at a meeting during the troubles of the League, began a speech with promising, that he should divide the subject he was about to treat of, into thirteen heads. The audience were heard to murmur, and to interrupt this formidable beginning, "But," continued the orator, "to prevent my being too prolix, I shall omit a dozen of them."

ALEXANDRIA:
MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 5.
YALE COLLEGE.

Mr. Snowden.
Having seen a wish expressed, in a late number of your Gazette, to learn the present situation of the various colleges in the United States, I take the liberty to send you an account of the college in Connecticut. Perhaps a little minuteness in my remarks may be excused, as the gentlemen in this section of the country more frequently send their children and wards there, to complete their education, than to any other eastern institution.

Yale college was founded in the year 1700 or 1701, by governor Yale, from whom it takes its name, or rather, he was one of its earliest and most liberal benefactors. It was originally located at Saybrook, a small town at the mouth of the Connecticut river, but in 1717 was removed to New-Haven, its present seat.

The city of New-Haven was at first laid out in nine squares, of 90 rods on a side, and the centre square was reserved as a public common. On the western and most elevated division, stand the colleges, facing to the public square. They are of brick, and five in number. Three of these, each a hundred feet long, and four stories high, are finished in studies: to each study are attached two lodging rooms, and two smaller apartments. Of the remaining edifices, one contains the chapel and philosophical chamber, and the other a laboratory, recitation rooms, and a hall for the library. These buildings stand on a line, before which there is a delightful promenade, planted with elms and poplars, and make a very pretty appearance. The tenants of the upper rooms over-look the town, and have a fine view of the harbor, the Sound and Long island in the distance. Back of these buildings stands the common-hall, which is also of brick.

While on this branch of the subject, it may not be improper to remark that more buildings are necessary to render the accommodations complete. The government of the college have, for many years, been making efforts to procure funds for this purpose; but the penny-saving policy which prevails in the state, has hitherto rendered all their exertions ineffectual.

It is believed that the library of the college contains about 5,000 volumes of select books, many of them very ancient and rare copies. There are also two societies connected with the institution, whose libraries, containing more than 2,000 select volumes in the various departments of literature, are open to all the students.

The philosophical apparatus is sufficiently extensive for all the purposes of instruction; and the college possesses a cabinet of specimens in mineralogy, probably more beautiful and perfect than any other in America.

For the use of a part of this, consisting of 27,000 admirable specimens, the institution is indebted to the generosity of colonel Gibbs, who procured the cabinet in Paris.

About five years since a medical institution was connected with the college, which promises to be of extensive usefulness. A noble stone edifice has been procured for its accommodation, and a botanical garden, of some acres in extent, is in a state of rapid improvement.

The faculty of the college consists of a president, who is the instructor of the senior class, nine professors, and six tutors. Perhaps it may be deemed indecorous to remark upon the characters of any of the gentlemen who now fill these offices. I would, therefore, merely observe, if the loss which the institution sustained in the death of the illustrious Dwight, could be made up by the possession of any scholar in New-England, for its president, that scholar was Dr. Day. And in the departments of chemistry, geology and mineralogy, few institutions can boast of a more active, zealous, or skillful professor, than Yale possesses in Mr. Silliman. Among the number of its professors, there is one of mathematics and natural philosophy, one of the learned languages and history, one of rhetoric and belles lettres, &c. &c.

The number of students in the academical institution of Yale, is, generally, between two hundred and seventy and three hundred, excluding resident graduates.

There are one or two other circumstances which it may not be amiss to notice, though they are not referred to in your questions. The laws of the college require all candidates for admission into the freshman class to be fourteen years old, and to be well acquainted with arithmetic, Virgil, Cicero's select orations, Sallust, the Greek Testament, Græcia Minora, and to write true Latin in prose. The yearly bills of those who reside in the colleges and board in commons, are something less than 150 dollars; and genteel boarding can be had in the city for 3 dollars per week, by those who take rooms out.

LATEST FROM GIBRALTAR.
By the Boxer, the editors of the Gazette have received a communication, from their correspondent, dated the 15th ult. informing, that the Plague at Algiers had increased. The daily deaths had increased from 20 to 29, to between 40 and 45 a day. At Oran, and its territory, the deaths were from 100 to 150 a day. The Day had lost a son, a daughter, and a sister-in-law.

All vessels arriving from Gibraltar at any of the Spanish ports, were obliged to perform a quarantine of observation for ten days, and the articles on board to be purged.

The plague which is called by the physicians "the plague of the Levant," had extended from Tangiers, to four villages in its neighborhood. At Tangiers, up to the 11th, there had been 82 deaths of the plague. At the Village Marchand, in which is a population only of about 200, forty nine had died, and amongst them three entire families, one of seven persons and two of six. It was calculated that one fifth of the inhabitants of the above places would be swept off.

[New-York Gazette, September 30.

The brig Boxer from Smyrna, touched at Gibraltar, and brought a few letters of the 17th Aug. One of that date quotes prices as follows:—"Beef, mess, 13.50; E. I. Cotton, 22, salted—Coffee, W. I. 30 dols 50 per cwt; Codfish, Am. none—Rice, 7—Flour 12—Am. tar 4 50, none at market—pipe staves, 75—tobacco, Ky. 11 a 11 50, Virginia, 10 a 10 60. Spanish dollars, 6 per cent, premium—two Spanish Indianen now taking in."

THE LATE MR. DENNIE.

It is well remembered that the late Mr. Dennie, long known to the world as a man of elegant acquirements and superior genius, and for many years editor of the Port Folio, Philadelphia, was educated for the law, and that he entered upon his profession with high hopes and great advantages. From an article in a late N. E. Galaxy, we extract the following account of his quarrel with his profession, which is exactly characteristic of the man.

I well recollect that soon after he had terminated his novitiate, he was admitted to the oath of an attorney and had opened an office. I was present at his debut as advocate at the bar. No young lawyer ever entered on practice with more favorable auspices. The senior members of the bar secured his success, and he numbered all who were valuable among the jurors as particular friends. As it was generally known when he was to deliver his 'maiden speech' by a kind of tacit agreement the gentlemen of the bar resolved to afford him the most favorable arena for the display of his eloquence. The opposing counsel had engaged to suspend all interference, although his statements deviated ever so far from fact.

Mr. Dennie had been engaged on behalf of the defendant to support a motion for an injunction or continuance in an action brought by certain plaintiffs for the recovery of the contents of a promissory note. The execution of the note could not be contested, it was given for a valuable consideration, and was justly due. A very liberal indulgence had already been extended to the defendant by several previous instances, and nothing remained for the most ardent advocate to press upon the court but the untoward effects a judgment and consequent writ of execution, would have upon the fortunes of his client.

The court opened, and, as if by previous concert, all other business was suspended, and our young advocate, after bowing gracefully, assumed the attitude of an orator, and addressed the court.

I wish I could transcribe this address. Twenty years have elapsed, and I remember it as an original picture of Claude Lorraine—to do justice to the original I should possess the talents of the matchless artist.

The writer then describes the speech as a long, eloquent and affecting picture of the defendant's sufferings in the service of his country, and of the peculiar situation of his pecuniary circumstances which entitled him to a continuance.]

The orator ceased—mute attention accompanied the delivery, and at the close all were charmed and all silent; even the opposing counsel sat hesitating between his fees and his feelings, and forebore to reply. This silence, which our young advocate seemed to notice with peculiar complacency, was broken from the bench. The judge, an unlettered farmer, who by the prevalence of a party, had obtained the summit of yeoman ambition, a seat on the bench of an inferior court, who knew only the technical jargon of the court, and to whom the language and bathos of Dennie were alike unintelligible, sat during the delivery of the address rolling a pair of "lack lustre eyes" with a vacant stare, sometimes at the orator and then at the bar as if seeking most curiously for meaning, and who was perhaps only restrained by the respectful attention of the latter from interrupting the speaker. The judge broke silence.

Judge. I confess that I am in rather a kind of a quandary. I profess I am somewhat dubious, I can't say I know for airtum what the young gentleman would be at.

Counselor P. My brother Dennie, may it please your honour, has been enforcing his motion for an injunction on the part of the defendant, in the case of Patrick McGrippinlaw et alii Plaintiffs, vs. Noadiah Chubb.

Judge. Oh! Ay! now I believe I understand—the young man wants the cause to be hung up for the next term, daz he?

Counselor V. Yes, may it please the court.

Judge. Well, well, if that's all he wants, why couldn't he say so in a few words, pat to the purpose, without all this larry cum larry?

Our advocate took his hat and gloves from the table, cast a look of ineffable contempt upon the Boctian magistrate and stalked out of the Court house.

Although Mr. Dennie appeared to view his unlucky debut in its proper light, and would frequently tell the story of his discomfiture with great humor, yet his friends perceived he was deeply wounded—disgusted with the profession. To entice him to a second essay some months afterwards, I observed to him, "that I was engaged as counsel in an action which presented a fine opportunity for the display of his peculiar talents. That I would introduce him in the cause, and he might open it before a presiding judge who possessed a taste for fine speaking, and would justly appreciate the force and classical purity of his rhetoric."

His reply convinced me that he had taken a final leave of the noisy bar.

D. "It may do for you, my friend, to pursue this sort of business—you can address the ignoble vulgar in their own Alsatia dialect. I remember the Boctian Judge, and it is the last time I will ever attempt to batter down a mud wall with roses."

Alex's Common Council.

SEPTEMBER 30, 1818.
Ordered, That the Superintendent of Police, do cause three lamps to be placed, one in the centre of the new, one in the centre of the old market house, and one at the south end of the portico to the new market house, and that the captain of the watch cause them to be lighted in the same manner as the other lamps in the market house.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Police cause a lamp to be erected in Pitt street, opposite St. Paul's Church, the expense to be charged to the general fund.

Ordered, That the amount of the execution in favor of the common council paid to the Marshal of the District of Columbia by Francis L. Lee, be refunded.

Ordered, That the taxes charged to Wm. H. Fitzhugh, on one tytheable, three horses, one cow, be remitted, as not chargeable in the corporation.

Passed in Council the 30th day September, 1818. JAMES H. HOOE, President of the common council.

Approved 1st October, 1818. JACOB HOFFMAN, Mayor.

An act to amend an act entitled an act concerning the Chalybeate or Medical spring at the intersection of Pitt and Montgomery streets in the town of Alexandria.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the common council of the town of Alexandria, That the following rules and regulations be observed by all persons and particularly by people of color who may visit at the Chalybeate or Medical spring.

1st. That while there they are to behave themselves in an orderly and respectful manner to all persons, especially towards the white visitors at the spring.

2nd. That they shall not either in going to, while at, or returning from the spring, be guilty of rude or boisterous or noisy conduct either in words or acts, and that they do not, in any manner, prevent any person from coming to the spring, but after they have made use of the water of the spring, they retire forthwith from the same in a quiet and respectful manner.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall violate any of the preceding rules shall for each offence forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar to be recovered before the Mayor or any Justice of the peace for the county of Alexandria—and if any person who shall be convicted for a breach of this law, be unable to pay the fine, he or she shall give security for their good behaviour in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for a period not exceeding six months, or in default thereof, he or she shall be committed to the workhouse for a period not exceeding six days.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the passing of the same.

Passed in council the 15th day of September, 1818. J. H. HOOE, President of the common council.

Approved 16th September, 1818. JACOB HOFFMAN, Mayor.

A true copy. I. P. THOMPSON, C. C.

Attention!
The members of the Alexandria Artillery are hereby notified to attend a quarterly meeting of the company, at the court-house, on Monday next, at 7 P. M.

MARINE JOURNAL.
PORT OF ALEXANDRIA, October 3.

ARRIVED.
Ship Potomac, Bradford, from Liver pool, (previously reported) having been detained below several days by head winds.

Schr William, Drinkwater, 10 days from St Andrews; plaster to Lawson & Fowle.

Schr Sophia, Weeks, 20 days from Lubec; lumber, to T. H. Howland. Sept 1st, lat 39 lon 72, spoke brig Betsey, last from Campeachy, of and for Nantucket, having been out ten months on a whaling voyage.

October 4.
Brig Hunter, Grinnalls, from New-York, (previously reported) having been detained by head winds.

Schr George, Washington, Jackson, 37 hours from Norfolk; sugar, rum and molasses to Barnwell & Popham and G. Newton, and tar to the master. Yesterday saw a ship and an hermaphrodite brig in the mouth of St Mary's river; could not learn where bound to.

Port of New-York, September 30.
Arrived—The brig Boxer, Humphreys, 76 days from Smyrna. The Boxer has on board a male and female camel, to the owners. Left at Smyrna, the brig Romp, of Boston, waiting for fruit, to sail in 2 months, the only American there. Arrived at Gibraltar August 17, and sailed in 12 hours after—brought letters from Gibraltar, but no list of vessels. Aug. 19, off Cape St. Vincent, fell in with two row-galleys, each manned with about 60 men, each towing round the Boxer several times, but did not like the preparations to receive them, and squat down in their boats. They detained an English brig while in sight. At Gibraltar there was a talk of a Spanish war, and if the above boats had attempted to board the Boxer, a good account would probably have been given of them. From the 30th of Aug. to Sept. 5, from lat 40 to 42, had continued gales from W S W to N W and suffered much in sails and rigging. Sept. 5, spoke brig Hero, 14 days from N. York for Gibraltar. 17th, was supplied with bread by capt Kelly, in the British schr 4 Sons, 3 days from Boston for Halifax. 25th, fell in with the brig Franklin, from Hispaniola for Boston—in a severe gale in the Gulf, lost her stern boat, and was entirely out of bread—lowered our boat, and divided with them our bread and flour.

Lexington at Public Sale.
On THURSDAY, October 15, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public sale, on the premises, Lexington.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale.
About two-thirds of it is covered with an unclean heavy growth of white and black oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The lot or improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, icehouse, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is enclosed, it is comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable

Shad & Herring Fisheries.
however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams above mentioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters.
When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac.
It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale; secured by a deed of trust on the land, which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Mason on Mr. Norton, residing on the premises.
August 31 WILLIAM MASON.

Corporation Property.
On THURSDAY, the 24th inst., at 11 A. M.
WILL be rented at public auction, on a lease of five years, commencing on the 10th October, 1818, the first lot on Duke-street, commencing 56 feet 1 inch east of Union-street, binding about 75 feet 2 inches on Duke-street, running north 70 feet; thence westwardly with the line of Duke-street 75 feet 3 inches; thence 70 feet southwardly to the beginning. Vacant the second lot, commencing at the eastern extremity of the former, running in a line with Duke-street 50 feet to the Potomac strand; thence northwardly with the strand 44 feet; thence westwardly 50 feet with the parallel of Duke-street; thence 44 feet southwardly to the beginning—now occupied by Mrs. Mills.
The third lot, beginning 44 feet from Duke-street, running with the line of Potomac strand, 24 feet northwardly; thence westwardly parallel to Duke-street 50 feet; thence southwardly with a line parallel to the strand 24 feet; thence eastwardly 50 feet to the beginning—occupied by Thomas Preston.
The stone warehouse on Duke-street and Potomac strand, occupied by John Munster, 44 feet by 72 to an alley on the south.
The frame building occupied by Thomas Preston, on east side of the strand, with the privilege of an opening 15 feet wide to the south and 10 feet on the east, not to be enclosed or built upon.
A wharf, beginning 10 feet eastwardly of the aforementioned building, running eastwardly to the river Potomac; thence about 115 feet southwardly; thence westwardly to the aforementioned 15 feet opening; thence with the lines of the opening to the beginning.
One other lot, 27 feet 3 inches on the strand, bounding on the 15 feet alley, south of the stone warehouse, of the depth of the corporation property westwardly.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria —it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity.
A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit.
More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had.
The terms of sale will be accommodating.
Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

Stop the Swindler.
FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.— He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair; he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, where he said he intended to work again, but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villainy.
Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLLEHA LAWS.

WAS committed to the jail of this Co. as a runaway, a negro man, who calls himself JOHN WEAKS, and says that he was born free in Prince George Co.
Maryland, that his mother's name is Sally Green, who lives near the road leading from the Alexandria Ferry to the Eastern Branch bridge, adjoining one Hen. Thompson. He was committed to this jail on the 7th May last, and then called himself William Washington, but made his escape the 18th. He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, stout made. Says he is known to Mr. Daniel Moxley, and Henry Thompson, of Maryland. The owner is requested to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

Charles County Court,
March Term, 1818.
BILL IN CHANCERY.
Robert Perry
versus James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth E. his wife, James B. Dunnington and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.
THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate.
Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents. It is thereupon, at petition of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Teste,

Charles County Court,
March Term, 1818.
ON application to Charles county court of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry indebted debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can as-ertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Jno. Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual imprisonment for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him.—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next; he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several salutary laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

PROPOSALS.
By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,
TO PUBLISH
A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address, To the People of the United States.
THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statuesmen—of men who have guided Aragies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, wooed Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS OF General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:— the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.
The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.
MR. GEORGE BRIDGENT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr.
Amies. The work shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.
The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Binns.
They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next.
That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of obtruding himself as a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.
A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.
Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law.
